Submission Guidelines & Invitation for Authors

To ensure a smooth editorial process and maintain the high quality of our journal, please adhere to the following guidelines when preparing your manuscript:

1. Scope & Originality: We welcome submissions across all areas of law. Your manuscript must represent original scholarly work, relevant to current legal discourse, and must not be under consideration for publication elsewhere. We seek papers that clearly deliver on the promise of their title and introduction.
2. Manuscript Specifications: Format: Microsoft Word (.doc or .docx); Length: Not more than ten thousand words including references; Spacing: single line spacing.
3. The Peer Review Process: In our commitment to academic excellence, every submission undergoes a rigorous double-blind peer review. This means your manuscript will be evaluated by experts in the field without revealing your identity or affiliation. This process ensures impartiality and quality. Authors may be invited to revise their papers based on reviewer feedback before final acceptance.
4. Copyright & Author Responsibilities: By submitting your manuscript to EBSULJ, you grant the journal the copyright for first publication. Subsequent reproduction or republication of the work requires prior written consent from the Editor-in-Chief. Please note that the views and opinions expressed in published articles belong solely to the authors. The publishers do not assume responsibility for the absolute accuracy of all content.
5. How to Submit: Please submit your manuscript through the online submission system or to the following email address to the Editorial Board: ebisu.lj@gmail.com.
6. Publication Stipend: A modest handling and peer-review stipend is required for all submissions. This fee supports the administrative and review processes essential to maintaining our publication standards. Details will be communicated upon initial manuscript acceptance.

We look forward to receiving your exceptional work and welcoming you to our scholarly community.
